

Erato Stylianos Markidou is a Medical Physics Expert currently working at the Bank of Cyprus Oncology Centre, Nicosia, Cyprus. She had her bachelor degree in Physics from University of Cyprus in 2001 and graduated from Wright State University, OH, USA in 2003 with Masters of Science concentrating in Medical Physics with honors. She has been working with Radiation therapy treatment planning and quality assurance and commissioning of radiotherapy and diagnostic equipment in a very busy department the last 18 years. She is the chair person of the communication committee of EURAMED. She is the past president of CAMPBE. She is also the president of BRF (Biomedical Research Foundation) and member of the Cypriot Medical Physics Registry Council. She is member of the Publication and Communication Committee the last three years.